

Encouraging one another

Part 7 – Life Together (“one another” series)

- I. Greet one another – I am known and loved.
 - A. Greet one another with a holy kiss (Romans 16:16; 1 Corinthians 16:20; 2 Corinthians 13:12).
 - B. Greet one another with a kiss of love (1 Peter 5:14).
- II. Meet regularly to encourage one another – I am needed and I need others.
 - A. Meet to motivate one another (Hebrews 10:24-25a).
 - We must meet regularly to urge one another to love and do good works
 - Some Christians neglect consistently meeting together.
 - B. Encourage one another (Hebrews 10:25b; 1 Thessalonians 5:11).
 - We need constant encouragement of believers because Christ is returning soon (Hebrews 10:25b).
 - We need to constantly encourage one another to live distinct from the world (1 Thessalonians 5:11).
